

LOBBYING 510

Effective Date: 02/01/2016

Any employee, other than an elected official, who is involved in lobbying at the State Legislature, in a personal capacity, shall take annual leave for such activities unless such lobbying has been approved by the County Commission. If the Commission is not in session, such lobbying shall be approved by the Commissioner holding that portfolio and reported at the next Commission meeting.