Mobile Vet Center at Fargo Air Museum for “Veteran’s Coffee Hour”, Nov. 11

FARGO, N.D. – The Department of Veterans Affairs Fargo Mobile Vet Center will be offering services during the first-ever “Veteran’s Coffee Hour” at the Fargo Air Museum, Nov. 11 from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m.

Beginning Nov. 11, “Veteran’s Coffee Hour” will be held the second Wednesday of every month, from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m., at the Fargo Air Museum.

Mobile Vet Center services include resource and referral services for individual counseling, group counseling, marital/family counseling, military sexual trauma (MST) counseling, bereavement counseling, and drug and alcohol referral. The Vet Center acts as a liaison with VA and other community resources to ensure any Veteran will get the help they need. The Vet Center is completely free of charge and confidential. The Vet Center is located at 3310 Fiechtner Drive South, Suite 100, in Fargo, N.D., and is available to all combat Veterans, Military Sexual Trauma Veterans, and their families.

For more information about Vet Center services, call Christy Karst, Fargo Vet Center Veterans Outreach Program Specialist, at (701) 237-0942 or visit www.vetcenter.va.gov.
