

2-01. Permits must be in possession prior to starting any movement.

The County has the authority to revoke permits when the holder violates or abuses the privilege or conditions of the permits.