

SHERIFF
CASS COUNTY

NEWS RELEASE

Vandalism to the Cass County Courthouse

CASS COUNTY, N.D. (August 13, 2014) – On 08/13/14, just after midnight, night shift cleaning staff at the Cass County Courthouse reported hearing a loud noise at the east side of the Courthouse and discovered vandalism to the main entrance doors. Upon arrival, Deputies found two broken windows and two large rocks wrapped in paper with the words "nazism" and "facism" written on them, at the main entrance of the Cass County Courthouse (east side of the building). A report for Criminal Mischief was taken. There are no suspects at this time. The incident is under investigation.